The Harvard International Law Journal is published semiannually by Harvard Law School students.

Submissions: The Harvard International Law Journal welcomes articles from professors, practitioners, and doctoral degree candidates of private or public international law, as well as other related disciplines. Submissions should not exceed 25,000 words, including footnotes. All manuscripts should be submitted in English with both text and footnotes typed and double-spaced. Footnotes must conform with The Bluebook: A Uniform System of Citation (21st ed.), and authors should be prepared to supply any cited sources upon request. All manuscripts submitted become the property of the ILJ and will not be returned to the author. The ILJ requires electronic submission through the ExpressO online submission system at <http://www.law.bepress.com/expresso>. In addition to the manuscript, authors must include an abstract of not more than 250 words, as well as a cover letter and résumé or CV. Authors must also ensure that their submissions include a direct email address and phone number at which they can be reached throughout the review period.

Subscriptions: Subscription rates for the 2021 volume (Volume 62) are $42 domestic; $52 foreign (including Canada). For some international subscribers, delivery via air mail may be more reliable than standard service, so please note in your inquiry if you would like surface or air mail. All correspondence concerning subscriptions should be addressed to the Admin. Director of Publications, Harvard Law School, Student Journals, Caspersen Student Center, 1585 Massachusetts Avenue, Suite 3039, Cambridge, MA 02138; (617) 495-3694; journals@law.harvard.edu.
